Joseph W. Brady, CCIM, SIOR and president of Joseph W. Brady, Inc. dba The Bradco Companies, the High Desert's longest standing full-service commercial, industrial, office, retail and land brokerage company, is pleased to announce that Victorville Civic Center's newest professional tenant is Attorney Diana J. The 1,655± square-foot space provides two offices, two conference rooms, a library and a break room, with great visibility and ready access to the courthouse and Victorville City Hall, both of which are across the street from the new office location. The property owners, Gale and Shirley Slauson, have owned the building since they developed it in 1985. It has always been limited to professional law offices. The care and pride of ownership is self-evident in the buildings prime location, well maintained landscape and prefect amenities.

"The suite was located by The Bradco Companies and could not be more suitable to my needs," stated Diana J. Carloni. "I have a great agent, a great landlord and a great location."

Business bustled in the new office following a blessing of the office given by Deacon Del Haroldson, C.R. of Our Lady of the Desert Catholic Church in Apple Valley. Deacon Del, a former practicing attorney himself, emphasized the service element of an attorney's practice and the need to seek truth, justice and dignity to all persons served.

"We were extremely pleased to represent Mrs. Carloni in her relocation for her new offices and feel that her professional services rendered are based upon three "E"s — Efficiency, Effectiveness, and Excellence" — stated Brady.
